("Nasdaq") and shall not accept, directly or indirectly, any consulting, advisory or other compensation fees from the Company or a subsidiary of the Company. For purposes of the foregoing, compensatory fees shall not include such fees and amounts that are permitted to be excluded by the rules of Nasdaq. In determining whether a director is eligible to serve on the Committee, the Board shall also consider whether the director is affiliated with the Company, a subsidiary of the Company, or an affiliate of a subsidiary of the Company to determine whether such affiliation would impair the director's judgment as a member of the Committee. Members of the Committee shall be appointed annually by the Board. The Board shall approve a Chair of the Committee.

Meetings

The Committee shall meet at least annually and more frequently as necessary or appropriate, including teleconferences when appropriate. Only Committee members and invited advisors shall be present at any meeting at which the Committee determines the compensation of the chief executive officer of the Company or other executive officers of the Company; provided that the chief executive officer may be present during the Committee's deliberation with respect to all other executive officers, but may not vote. Special meetings of the Committee may be called on one day notice by the Chairman of the Board or the Committee Chairman. A majority of the Committee shall constitute a quorum, and the Committee shall act only on the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present at the meeting. Attendance by the Chairman of the Board and by other members of management will be at the invitation of the Committee Chair. The Committee shall maintain minutes of all meetings documenting its activities and recommendations to the Board.

Consultants, Legal Counsel and Other Advisers

The Committee shall have the responsibility and authority, in its sole discretion, to retain, or obtain the advice of, a compensation consultant, legal counsel, or other adviser (a "Consultant") and shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, and oversight of the work of any such Consultant retained by the Committee. The Company will provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to any Consultant or administrative support retained by the Committee.

The Committee may select or receive advice from any Consultant that it prefers, including Consultants that are not independent; provided, however, that prior to selecting or receiving advice from a Consultant (other than in-house legal counsel), and annually thereafter, the Committee shall take into consideration the following factors (as well as any other factors that may be required under the rules of Nasdaq or the Securities and Exchange Commission): (i) the provision of other services to the Company by the person that employs the Consultant; (ii) the amount of fees received from the Company by the person that employs the Consultant, as a percentage of the total revenue of the person that employs the Consultant; (iii) the policies and procedures of the person that employs the Consultant that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest; (iv) any business or personal relationship of the Consultant with a member of the Committee; (v) any stock of the Company owned by the Consultant; and (vi) any business or personal relationship of the Consultant or the person employing the Consultant with an executive officer of the Company. The Committee need not conduct the foregoing assessment for a Consultant acting in a role limited to those activities for which such assessment is not required under the rules of Nasdaq.
