Ms. Coady has most recently served as Vice President & General Manager, Clinical Staff Development Solutions at HealthStream. Under her leadership, HealthStream's innovative, industry-leading clinical development solutions for the healthcare workforce have grown both in number of offerings and market share among hospitals and health systems across the nation. In her new role, she will be responsible for all of the Company's clinical products and solutions, including those in the areas of Clinical Staff Development and Resuscitation.

"Trisha is a visionary, strategic leader who consistently delivers results," said Robert A. Frist, Jr., Chairman & CEO, HealthStream. "Her deep clinical knowledge, coupled with strong entrepreneurial business skills, makes her well suited to lead HealthStream's efforts to innovate and offer outcomes-focused clinical solutions to healthcare organizations. She is highly respected among both customers and employees—and I believe she makes an outstanding addition to the Company's Executive Team."

In her tenure at HealthStream, Ms. Coady has played a key role in the successful product development, market introduction, and ongoing management of the Company's portfolio of clinical staff development solutions. The Nurse Residency Pathway™ program, CE Center™, Checklist Management™, and several industry-leading nursing skills content libraries have all excelled under Coady's leadership. As HealthStream launches new resuscitation solutions in the marketplace, which will start in early 2019, Ms. Coady's skills will be well utilized as her responsibilities expand to include its full suite of clinical and competency solutions.

"As a nurse, it's an honor to work at a Company like HealthStream that is dedicated to supporting the healthcare workforce deliver better outcomes," said Ms. Coady. "I am inspired by the work of our talented leaders and employees in achieving our mission and am excited to continue disrupting the industry through innovation as a member of the Executive Team."
