Ms. Rappuhn has served on six public company boards with revenue ranging from $70 million to $5 billion, primarily among healthcare provider companies. She served as an audit committee member and financial expert for all six boards, while concurrently chairing four of those committees. She also served as the Chief Financial Officer for Quorum Health Group from 1999 to 2001. Ms. Rappuhn began her career as a Certified Public Accountant at Ernst & Young, LLP.

Along with Ms. Rappuhn's executive-level financial expertise and leadership, she brings cybersecurity governance skills to HealthStream's Board. She holds a CERT Certificate in Cybersecurity Oversight from the National Association of Corporate Directors and Carnegie Mellon University.

Ms. Rappuhn's exceptional performance across multiple executive and director roles has earned national recognition through the years. Most recently, she was listed among Women Inc.'s "2019 Most Influential Corporate Board Directors" and Directors & Boards Magazine's "2018 List of Directors to Watch."

With a long-standing passion for healthcare delivery, Ms. Rappuhn has been actively involved in public service organizations. She founded Westminster Home Connection, a not-for-profit organization that makes homes safe and functional for older adults to age-in-place. Ms. Rappuhn also served as a project leader for the Healthcare Financial Management Association's (HFMA) Patient Friendly Billing initiative, along with other key HFMA initiatives.

"Ms. Rappuhn makes an outstanding addition to our Board of Directors," said Robert A. Frist, Jr., Chairperson and Chief Executive Officer of HealthStream. "Her distinguished record of accomplishments and financial expertise brings a wealth of experience to HealthStream. I expect that she will add a valuable perspective to Board discussions as she advises the Company."
