About INVEST Tennessee

INVEST Tennessee Conference LLC was formed specifically to facilitate these investment conferences to bring together senior management of select Tennessee public companies with regional and national members of the financial community. It is guided by a steering committee that includes chief financial officers and investor relations professionals from participating companies, financial analyst chapters and representatives of the underwriting sponsors. The group firmly believes in the benefits that a regional equity conference provides to participating companies, to fund managers and to the entire region.

Previous conferences in 2004, 2007, and 2008 have allowed public companies in Indiana and Kentucky to reach investment professionals from the region and cities such as New York, Atlanta, Chicago, St. Louis, and Charlotte, plus Indianapolis, Nashville, Cincinnati, and other regional cities.
